

Dublin Kendo Kobukai

Club Rules - Dublin Kendo Kobukai

1. ALWAYS TREAT OTHERS WITH THE HIGHEST RESPECT, REGARDLESS OF GRADE, GENDER, CREED, COLOR, AGE OR EXPERIENCE.
2. Do not swear or talk in a disrespectful way to any members.
3. Always bow when you enter and leave the Dojo.
4. Be changes and ready when the practice starts, Have your equipment checked before practices so that is working. If you miss line up you must get fully dressed and sit at the edge of the appropriate training area in seiza, and wait for the trainer to tell you to join the training.
5. Keep finger and toe nails shot and clean, remove any jewelry and rings before practice.
6. Be quit and pay attention during practice. Do not interrupt or contradict the trainer, If you have something to say, do it in private after training.
7. Do not teach other unless you're an instructor or instructed to do so.
8. If you're injured and need to stop or finish the training early let the teacher know.
9. Make sure that you sit in line with the Dojo-Captain when practice starts and end. Put the Shinai, Kote, Men and Tenugi in the same manner as the Sempai.
10. Club announcements will be made by a board member or instructor when everyone is in seiza, either before or after training, pay attention and do not interrupt the person making the announcement.